MICHAEL BELL PAINTS FOR BRIGHT STEPS FORWARD.

On 16 September 2008 celebrity artist MICHAEL BELL unveiled a new portrait alongside his famous Sopranos painting clientele on the Red Carpet at the Vanderbilt in New York to benefit kids with Cerebral Palsy, Autism & Traumatic Brain Injuries at a star-studded Stars & Cigars Red Carpet Gala.

The portrait is the first in a series that will grace the entrance hall to their new facility once it opens in Staten Island. The Red Carpet painting unveiling photos can be viewed online at: <http://mbellart.com/cigarsandstars.html>

Backed by an impressive list of credentials and celebrity clientele, MICHAEL BELL has been taking the art world by storm. With BELL's new "TICKET TO RIDE" Painting Series becoming the inspiration behind a new full-length feature film, and with a star-studded cast of characters at his art openings MICHAEL BELL is definitely an emerging artist to watch!

Please contact GALLERIA RED to arrange an interview with MICHAEL BELL about his art, recent & upcoming charity events, or for a FEATURE EDITORIAL on his new TICKET TO RIDE Painting Series via e-mail at: info@galleriared.com or via telephone at: 212.991.8720.
